

SEPTEMBER

DUE: _____

Let's R.A.P. Coupon
(Let's Read As Partners)

Award Winning Books
Caldecott, Newbery and Nene (other awards for children's books)

Student's First & Last Name: _____ Literary Form: _____

Parent's/Partner's Signature: _____

R.A.P COUPON MUST HAVE A WRITTEN STATEMENT INCLUDED. PLEASE REFER TO THE REVERSE SIDE FOR INSTRUCTIONS.

=====

Student's First Name: _____ Grade: 4 Room No.: _____ Teacher: _____

Book Title: _____ Author: _____

Let's Read As Partners

Genre: Award Winning

Awards: Caldecott, Newbery, Nene

About the awards: Caldecott: This award is presented to the most distinguished American children's picture book.

Newbery: This award is presented to the most distinguished American children's book (usually a chapter book) for children in grades 4-6.

Nene: This award is decided upon and voted by The students of Hawai'i in grades 4-6.

List of optional activities:

1. Identify which award this book won and explain why. Draw a picture of your favorite part of the story.
2. Respond by stating a theme (for example, how adversity can bring about maturity) or drawing a conclusion (for example, "Japan was unprepared for a long war" and supporting it with specific examples from the text.)